

Prepare your home for every season

Very hot and very cold weather can affect your health if you do not have the proper cooling and heating at home.

Utility assistance and other programs help residents manage their bills, afford necessities, and reduce the risk of health and safety challenges during extreme weather events.

Check out these resources for homeowners and renters to prepare yourselves and your home for every season.

PECO Services

PECO's Universal Service Programs
Learn about all of PECO's assistance programs 1.800.774.7040 — bit.ly/PECOassistancePrograms

CAP

Customer Assistance Program

Receive a sizeable discount on your ongoing electric or gas usage.

LIURP

Low Income Usage Reduction Program

Helps reduce household electric and gas use resulting in lower bills

CARES

Customer Assistance & Referral Evaluation

Services

Assist special-needs and low-income customers experiencing financial hardship

MEAF

Matching Energy Assistance Fund

Provides grants to stop shut-off or to reconnect service.

Community Response Partner Network

Join for updates on weather warnings and other Public Health Emergencies.

Sign up online

<https://bit.ly/CRPNnewsletters>

Utility Assistance Resource Guide

UESF

Income based programs stabilizing homes for families facing a housing crisis.

Utility Emergency Services Fund

Case management, Financial assistance, Educational workshops and more 1608 Walnut St. Suite 600, 19103

www.uesfacts.org

Benefits Access Center

Learn about and enroll in state and federal benefits

215.814.6845 — BAC@uesfacts.org

Utility Assistance Program

Utility services endangered or terminated (shut off)

215.814.6837 — utility@uesfacts.org

Family Empowerment Program

Stabilization assistance for families with children pre-school to 12th grade

215.732.8373 — family@uesfacts.org

Water Housing Stabilization

Assistance for high water usage and/or high water bills

267.639.8248 — water@uesfacts.org

Neighborhood Energy Centers

Learn about conserving energy, applying for bill payment assistance, and energy counseling.

To find a Neighborhood Energy Center near you visit bit.ly/NeighborhoodEnergyCenters or

Scan the QR Code

SCAN ME

Assistance for Older Adults

Philadelphia Corporation for the Aging (PCA)

Helpline: 215-765-9040

Provides assistance to low-income seniors. Call their Helpline with questions about staying safe, grab and go meals, or other assistance.

To learn about PCA emergency funds program visit your local senior center, call the helpline or visit pcacares.org.

Department of Public Health
CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

BenePhilly

BenePhilly offers non-income-based resources and FREE one-on-one support to help Philadelphians like you enroll in benefits to help you afford costs such as:

- ◆ Prescription Drugs
- ◆ Heat & Other Utilities
- ◆ Health insurance
- ◆ Property Taxes
- ◆ Groceries
- ◆ Disability Benefits
- ◆ Childcare Assistance

BENEPHILLY HOTLINE

(800) 994-5537

Monday – Friday
9am – 5pm

BenePhilly Centers:

Esperanza

(215) 324-0746 | Ext. 108
M-F: 9am – 5pm

PA CareerLink®

Philadelphia, Northwest

(215) 298-9292
M-F: 8:30am – 4:30pm

City of Philadelphia

-MSB

(215) 685-3654
M-F 9am – 5pm

Philadelphia FIGHT

(215) 525-8636
M-F: 9am – 5pm

UESF

(215) 814-6845
M-F: 9am – 5pm

Catholic Social Services

Southwest Family Center

(215) 724-8550 | Ext. 6
M-F: 9:30am – 5:30pm

IMPACT Services

Corporation

(215) 739-1600 | Ext. 156
M-F: 9am – 5pm